Variants of the original virus are ever more abundant and are spreading. Most of us that are enrolled in a trip have willfully chosen to travel and be subject to the uncertainties that accompany a worldwide pandemic. Lots of countries on our bucket list are requiring proof of vaccination. That you suffered through a COVID infection or that you tested negative three days ago is no longer sufficient. If you have personal or medical reasons that prevent you from being vaccinated, please do not enroll in a trip roster without first reviewing if you need a vaccine or not. In addition, new travel restrictions appear, change or disappear every week. The Gator Snow Ski club cannot be responsible if you choose to cancel from a trip rather than be vaccinated. We will treat cancellations due to vaccine related choices as a regular cancellation and subject to cancellation fees. Please understand that this is not a political statement or advocacy for vaccinations. It is just a matter of simple economics for our club. DanCenter- your specialist in holiday homes in Norway.
